

West Chester Film Festival's 2006 Best Documentary Film Wins Local Emmy® Award

Larry Mendte's film documentary, "Alex Scott: A Stand for Hope", winner of the 2006 West Chester Film Festival's Best Documentary Award was named Best Documentary at the local Emmys, presented by the Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the National Television Academy Arts and Sciences this past Saturday night. Congratulations, Larry!

This is the second award of merit for a 2006 West Chester Film Festival Award winner. "Binta and the Great Idea", awarded the 2006 WCFF Best Drama Statuette was later nominated for a 2006 Academy Award® in the Best Live Action Short film category.

Check out www.WestChesterFilmFestival.com for information on great film and great film events.

Larry Mendte has accepted the Festival's invitation as Honorary Host for 'A Night of the Classics' Fall Gala (November 10th) at the Cultural Center at the Chester County Historical Society. For more information, visit our website.